

Catholic Holiness Conference 2004

Sponsored by Una Voce - Cedar Rapids

Scotus Hall - Immaculate Conception Cedar Rapids, IA

Saturday March 27, 2004

9AM - 4 PM

Featuring:

Msgr. Michael Schmitz is a member of The Institute of Christ the King - Sovereign Priest a society of apostolic life erected by the Roman Catholic Church in 1990. Msgr. Schmitz is the Rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Oratory of the Immaculate Conception in Wausau, Wisconsin, a diocesan approved Traditional Latin Mass apostolate.

Fr. Chad Ripperger, FSSP, PhD is a member of The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter (FSSP) a society of apostolic life of pontifical right founded with the approval of His Holiness John Paul II. Fr. Ripperger is professor of Dogmatic and Moral Theology and Philosophy at Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary in Denton, Nebraska.

David Palm graduated in 1993 with an M.A. in New Testament studies from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and converted to the Catholic Faith in 1994. Since then, he has written numerous articles for such publications as This Rock, Envoy, Catholic World Report, The Coming Home Network Journal, Immaculata, and The Remnant. He works as an electrical engineer and lives on a small farm in rural Wisconsin with his wife Lorene and their three children.

Conference Schedule and Topics

Morning Session - 9 am to 12 pm

- "The Blessed Virgin Mary as the Icon of Tradition" by Msgr. Schmitz How the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Living Image of Holy Catholic Tradition
- "Modern Psychology and the Catholic Faith" Fr. Ripperger This talk will show why modern methods of psychology are invalid and why it is dangerous to the Catholic Faith
- "Surprised by Tradition" by David Palm Mr. Palm will give an account of his conversion to the Catholic Faith

Afternoon Session - 1 pm to 4 pm

- "The Traditional Mass and the Family" by David Palm This talk will address, from a father's perspective, the importance of the Traditional Latin Mass in the formation of children in the Faith.
- "Detail in Catholic Life" by Msgr. Schmitz Growth in personal holiness through how to address the details of everyday life from a Traditional Catholic perspective
- "Catholic Tradition and the Liturgy" by Fr. Ripperger This talk will demonstrate the connection between tradition and liturgy and why Catholic Tradition is necessary to understand the liturgy

Conference Admission is Free

(Lunch will not be provided.)

For more conference information visit our website at:

<http://www.uvcr.catholicam.org/>

or call Una Voce – Cedar Rapids at:
(319) 362-1660

Msgr. Schmitz has received permission from Archbishop Hanus to offer the Traditional Latin Mass at this conference.
Mass Time is 11AM.

In 2003 Una Voce – Cedar Rapids sponsored the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola by Father James Buckley, FSSP. If you enjoyed that conference you'll want to attend this one too!!

Una Voce–Cedar Rapids is a member of Una Voce International.